

Heros Severum

Plague Dogs

Bio:

Heros Severum is a quirky little number.

This no-bass having rock outfit can best be described as, well...

That's just it. We can't think of anything.

We can be loud and jagged, but melodic and catchy. We shout, speak, sing and clap our hands. We stop and start and start. We stomp our feet. Always without the bass - well almost. Just listen to that KICK DRUM!

Shellac? Minutemen? Missy Elliott? Nah, but you're close.

Heros Severum is Eric Friar, Sherryl Branch and Davey Staton.

We have recorded and released two 7" vinyl records and two full length albums. Heros Severum practices the art of self-recording, with the exception of the first album, Wonderful Educated Bear, which was recorded by J. Robbins in 2002. Analog vs. Digital? Both.

February 2005 will see the release of Plague Dogs, our second full-length. Members of We Versus the Shark, An Epic At Best, Sharks and Minnows and Carrie Nations all make guest appearances. (We recommend track 3, 6 or 8 to start).

We play and tour and are just as comfortable at the small bar down the street as we are opening for Mission of Burma or The Hives on a big stage.

Two Sheds is the label that releases Heros Severum.

Heros Severum is from Athens, Georgia.
